To the Colored I olers of Mississippi On the 22d day of this month the election will take pines. You will be called spon to vote for the Constitution which was framed at Juckson I his Constitution was formed by the authority of Congress, which is the sapreme power of the ma tion. The Congress of the United States put down the rebellion, it ded and you free, it protected, and still protects your freedom. Congress also give you the right to vote, and, through the Freedman's Bureau, it has planted schools and churches throughout the Stars, so that at least know the war, never knew a lettur, can no four thousand colored children in this hitte, who, before the war, never how a letter, can now read and write.

The Constitution which you are now called up in to vote for gives you the sum rights that white men have tefore the law and at the halfort how it provides that hools shall be catablished for the education of your children. The colored man who votes against this Constitution votes against the congress of the United Street his Constitution deliberately diclares. Think of in—the colored man who votes against that he does not wint the same rights for him is I that a whit man his Will anyone dothles the colored man who dothles. It is not that he does not wint the same rights for him is I that a whit man his Will anyone dothles.

s I' that a whit man his. Will any one do this? In colored man who does not vote at all, is just so had he hes down to te the American and for the tent of the American and for the tent of the American and for the tent of the American and for the Democratic party to carry out a Constitution they are uposed to Republican tracts with a provided.
